Keys to My Heart

I often save articles from past issues of T+L, and my husband and I made reservations at Casa Morada [Islamorada, Fla.; 888/881-3030 or 305/664-0044; www.casamorada.com; doubles from $199] because you had selected it as an Inn of the Month in 2001. We were worried when this year's March feature on the Keys didn't include it, but went ahead with our plans anyway—thank goodness. Three New York women who had been employed by Ian Schrager for more than 20 years combined bought the hotel last year and added man-made hills, lots of plant life, and 650 tons of white sand around the pool. Its 16 suites are airy and bright, each with a private terrace. It's worth checking out again!
